

AMC Networks and Comcast Reach New Multi-Year Distribution Agreement

January 31, 2022

NEW YORK and PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 31, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- AMC Networks and Comcast Cable today announced a new multi-year distribution agreement that includes continued carriage of AMC Networks' linear networks and expanded availability of its targeted streaming services to Xfinity TV, broadband and XClass customers. The agreement also continues the companies' relationship around AMC+, the premium streaming bundle focused on high-quality original scripted programming that was first launched to Xfinity customers in the summer of 2020 and has grown rapidly since.

"We are excited to continue and also expand our longstanding partnership with Comcast through a new agreement that includes not only continued carriage of our cable networks, but also our fast-growing targeted streaming services including AMC+, which was made available first to Xfinity customers," said Josh Reader, president of distribution and development for AMC Networks. "2022 will be the biggest year of original programming in our company's history, and Comcast's Xfinity customers will have a front row seat for every second of it."

"We've had a longstanding partnership with AMC Networks and are thrilled to continue it to provide our Xfinity customers with access to their content, including their growing library of original programming, across our industry-leading platforms," said Rebecca Heap, Senior Vice President, Consumer Products & Propositions, Comcast Cable.

Xfinity delivers all the best live, on demand and streaming entertainment to customers via its X1 and Flex devices, all accessible and discoverable with the award-winning Xfinity Voice Remote. X1 and Flex customers can access AMC Networks' programming by saying the name of a channel (like "AMC" "BBC America" or "WE tv" or streaming services like "AMC+") in the voice remote, or by saying the name of a desired title from the AMC Networks' cable channels or streaming services.

2022 will be the biggest year of original programming ever for AMC Networks, with final seasons of the popular and critically acclaimed series The Walking Dead – the highest-rated series in the history of cable television – Killing Eve and Better Call Saul. The year will also feature a wide array of new series including the gritty courtroom drama 61st Street, Dark Winds, Tales of the Walking Dead, Moonhaven and the first two series in an Anne Rice universe, Anne Rice's Interview with the Vampire and Anne Rice's Mayfair Witches.
